And a fast talker he is. Maybe he is a used car salesman on his off time? Got the run down on the Command post at double time but very efficient. And I thank him for bringing it over.....Just do not tell him or his weird brother.

Hi Rene,
Glad you made it over there safely. Mike Boykin and Joe Fowlow are bringing over START's command post trailer today so you should have a place to warm up when you need to.

Jennifer, Dave Terpening is available to go out to Yakima. Let's discuss.

Thank you for the message - got it. Glad you made it over and hope you manage to keep warm. Really glad to know you're on the project. Best of luck. I'll be thinking about you - but not contacting you unless it's to call you back after you try me. I'm working at home Monday - [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]. Expect to be back in the office on Tuesday and the rest of the week.

Sheila & Jennifer,
Testing the email system to see if we are connected with aircard.

Seems to respond to commands and your names so far.

Weather was not good over the pass, but has been pretty good on this side. No snow or rain.

Let me know if this makes it to you.

Cheers and wish us luck. I will try to go to sleep by counting miniature underground cows moving towards the new wells.

More when we have something to report back.
